Switzer.

Plenty of rain and mud. Wheat is looking well, although the most of it was sown a little late.

Head & Switzer have received their winter stock of goods and are doing a lively business.

Farmers are busy this damp weather stripping tobacco, of which there was a fine crop raised last season in this section.

We understand that Dixie Thompson has rented for the coming year Miss Lettie Macklin's farm, now occupied by Mr. Robert Taylor.

We are sorry to say that Jimmie Jones and wife are still very ill at Mr. Wick French's. Two of Mr. French's youngest children are also down with fever.

The good people will please remember in coming to church at this place hereafter that we have reserved seats which will be kept for certain persons. Please remember this.

Our Sunday-school will of course continue during the winter. Mr. John Switzer is teaching a select Sunday-school class at the church every Sunday morning and over the creek every Sunday evening.

We understand that Misses Bettie Lyons and J. H. Davidson are to board this winter with Dr. Dawson, so as to be convenient to their interest at the store. This we think a wise conclusion as the weather and roads are getting disagreeable for constant travel.

Some of our young ladies are still practicing leap year privileges on some of our uncallant old bachelors. That's right, girls, keep reminding them of their duties, as it is not best for man to live alone. We hope you may at last prove successful in your earnest efforts. Yet bachelors are hard-headed creatures, remember.

OBSERVER.

Taylor.

John Robert Gay, the Centenarian, was visiting friends and relatives here this week.

Little Maggie Johnson, who was so badly burned some time ago, is getting well rapidly.

It is rumored that one of our most charming young ladies will be led to the hymenal altar within a week or two.

Mr. Louis Oliver and family have returned from a somewhat extended visit to Mr. Oliver's father, down the river.

Mr. David S. Miller and family have returned home from a visit of some weeks to Mrs. Miller's father and mother on Pen Ridge.

The series of very interesting meetings at Taylor Chapel closed on Wednesday evening. A deep interest seems manifest in the community, and many were the regrets at the closing of these services. One of the most enjoyable features of the meetings were the solos, sung by Mr. Hill, whose voice is both liquid and rich. In the songs "Alone," "Rescue," "Where is my boy to night," the wonderful melody seemed the essence of prayer embodied in the harmony of sweetest sound.

Several persons have been announced for County Judge and there is an opening for us to get a good and impartial one. With all due respect for other candidates, I think no better one can be found than Esquire McDonald. He is a fair, square man, who will do justice every time without fear or favor, and I am convinced that if he should or would become a candidate, he would receive a large vote in every precinct of the county. Will your honor please consider this matter?

Think Run.

Ed. Roundabout:

Dear Nephews—Your dear uncle intended after the death of your lamented aunt Polly to retire to private life, but a wonderful change has lately taken place, but this is a profound secret between us. I might as well tell you what it is. I want to marry again and if you know of any nice girl that wants a husband, advise me. Cold nights and other drearinesses, all conspire to cause your uncle Zeke to flerce up his ears. It would be useless for me to tell you what kind of a gal would suit your uncle. Fourteen or fifteen would be acceptable. I will leave it to your judgment.

Your Uncle,
ZEKE YOCUM.

The "dreary November" has started in as though its reputation was to be maintained.

Prof. Wayland Graham gave an enjoyable hop on Thursday night to the pupils of his dancing class.

Resolutions of the Republican League of Kentucky.

DIED.—Sept 13th, 1885, in Franklin County, Kentucky, our brother, John J. Hampton. His solid worth, his fidelity to duty, his patriotism are well remembered. He was one of the steadfast and true veterans in the battle for freedom of opinion, and this first gap in our ranks will not be—cannot be—filled. We treasure his memory. We send and we give his beloved these tidings of our mourning. It is ordered that these resolutions be recorded in the minutes, and a eulogy sent to his widow. Above was offered by Hon. A. B. Willson, and passed by a rising vote.

A Plea for our Capital.

Editor Roundabout:

It certainly is very interesting, if not amusing, to a non-resident of this city to read the papers and see how her own citizens are regarding her filthiness and immorality before the public. Can any of these writers cite a single town or city of 500 or more inhabitants that is not cursed with these houses of ill fame? And yet their papers are not, nor have not paraded them to the public gaze. Is Frankfort worse than other cities? Are her police more neglectful of their duty than those of other places? Can it be that her citizens are more immoral or degraded than those of other cities?

Is there not some selfish motive behind all this hue and cry? We, in common with all good citizens, deplore that such things exist. But they have existed from time immemorial and will exist as long as there are lewd men in the world, for lewd men make lewd women, but we do protest against these writers parading it before the public in this manner. X. Y. Z.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes, that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs, had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by the use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with the best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. Trial Bottles free at Jos. LeCompte's Drug Store.

We have on consignment at our stable, two (2) stylish, safe, and reliable Phaeton horses which any lady can drive. Also several work horses, one pair aged mules, all of which we are directed to sell at prices to suit the times.

MOHR & GLANTON.

We clip the following account of a legal spat between the late Hon. Thos. N. Lindsey and Judge Geo. W. Craddock from the Owen County Democrat:

P. U. Major was the Judge of the court at the time, but declining to act on account of his relation to the litigants, Thos. H. Ford was elected Judge to try the case. His election occurred in the absence of Mr. Craddock, who lived in South Frankfort, and was always behind time in reaching the court room. Lindsey was putting in his best lick when Craddock made his appearance, blowing and puffing like a steam engine. He stopped Lindsey and explained to the court the unavoidable cause of his detention. Lindsey responded: "Yes, old man Craddock always has an excuse for not being in the court room attending to his cases; and on the last, great day when the angel Gabriel announces to all mankind that old St. Peter is about to close the gates of heaven, Craddock will be in the distance yelling, wait a little while. I'll be there directly."

It is no more direct the force of Lindsey's remark, and was considerably "cut," and responded as follows:

"Yes, on the last, great day, when God Almighty sitting on his throne, orders that Old Tom Lindsey, down to hell where he belongs, he will be filing exceptions, and praying an appeal."

It is no more direct to say that the passage between those distinguished gentlemen of the legal fraternity was highly enjoyed by all present.

Latest News.

Mrs. Harris has just returned from the east where she has selected a very large line of French millinery in all the latest novelties, and I am ready to take orders. I have employed extra help in order to make up for lost time. I have also purchased an elegant line of fancy dry goods and notions. You will find all the latest novelties which could be bought in New York city at my establishment. Examine my stock before purchasing, as my prices will satisfy everybody. Remember the place, 234 St. Clair street, Frankfort, Ky., next door to McClure Bro's. SOL HARRIS.

A Sad Career.

The divorced wife of a Bonanza millionaire recently came to a mournful death, principally from taking chloral, which unsettled her mind and demoralized her whole physical system. She had been weakly and ailing and felt her need of something to drown her sorrows and brace her up. Had she taken Brown's Iron Bitters, she would have been invigorated so that she could have fought her sorrows off, and enjoyed healthy life. This valuable medicine cures general debility, the nerves, strengthens the muscles and aids digestion.

(From the Cincinnati Enquirer.)

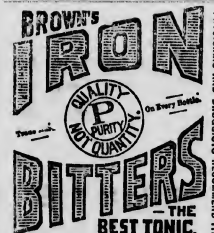

The Private Secretary.

The laughable farce-comedy, "The Private Secretary," was the magnet that drew a large audience to Heck's Opera House last evening. The play is not a new one to our theatre-goers, and at both of the former engagements when produced in this city it met with a flattering reception. It can scarcely be called anything but a three-act farce, but it is a jolly one, and just enough story to hold it together. At all times nearly everything appears to be at cross-purposes, and every body is delightful confusion, which, however, receives a straightening out that places everything all right and makes all of the characters content to live a while longer. The cast remains about the same as upon its former production, and is in every way a good one. Mr. W. H. Gillette as the "Private Secretary" is the central figure, and is peculiarly suitable to the part. We much doubt if there is an actor in the country who could make the character more droll in make-up, voice, and action. He is a mess. The head of one uncle is in the hands of Mr. A. Kennedy, who is "an actor" in any line of business for which he may be cast; and young Frank Tannehill, as the lively nephew, who causes most of the trouble, plays the part excellently well. Mr. Morey and the other gentlemen of the cast did well, and the same may be said of the ladies.

The Private Secretary will be at the Opera House, November 14th.

Interesting Experiences.

Wm. Cameron, Furniture Dealer of Columbus, Ga., tells his experience thus: "For thirteen years I have tried every remedy on the market for Stomach and Kidney Disorders, but got no relief, until I used Electric Bitters. After a few bottles, I am now cured, and think Electric Bitters the Best Blood Purifier in the world." Maj. A. B. Reed, of West Liberty, Ky., used Electric Bitters for an old standing Kidney affection and says: "Nothing has ever done me so much good as Electric Bitters." Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Jos. LeCompte.

This medicine, combining iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Nervous Prostration. It is an invigorating remedy for Disease of the Stomach and Liver. It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all the female troubles, such as irregular menstruation, etc. It does not injure the stomach, but rather produces constipation—order from interior of the stomach. It stimulates the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, regulates the bowels and the action of the liver, and the nerves and muscles.

It is no more direct to say that the passage between those distinguished gentlemen of the legal fraternity was highly enjoyed by all present.

FRANKFORT ROUNDAABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, NOVEMBER 7, 1885.

Mr. J. W. Rodgers, of the Bald Knob precinct, is announced to-day as a candidate for Jailor.

Mrs. Judge Wm. Lindsay gave a hallow e'en party to a number of her young lady friends on Saturday evening.

That portion of the old Market-house building next the Railroad depot is being fitted up for a bar-room and cutting establishment.

The unusual number of drunken men in town Monday was very good evidence that candidates were dealing out stagger jules pretty freely.

The office of jailor seems to be the most sought after of any of the county offices. There are now about fifteen candidates out and they are still coming.

The Chautauqua Circle will meet in the lecture room of the Christian Church Monday evening at 7 o'clock. The presence of every member is desired.

Mr. Mike Buckley has torn down the two-story brick house adjoining his residence at the foot of Ann street, and is putting up a handsome brick residence on the lot.

Mr. W. B. Hughes, of Louisville, son of Mr. W. J. Hughes, of this city, and Miss Susie Jones, of Eminence, will be married at that place on the 18th of this month.

Mr. W. A. Smoot, of the Bald Knob Precinct, has left on our table one of the largest beets we have seen for some time. It is 12 inches long, 24 inches in circumference, and weighs 7 pounds.

The bursting of the water pipes still continues. The twelve-inch main burst in front of the City Hall about 2 o'clock Sunday morning flooding the street and several cellars before it could be shut off.

Rev. George Darsie goes to Bagdad, Shelby county, Tuesday to commence a series of meetings, which will continue two or three weeks. He will be at home on Sunday mornings during that time to fill his pulpit.

Mr. Jas. Andrew Scott has won the suit against him involving his title to one-half the Drennon Springs property and steps will probably now be taken to improve the property and make it a popular summer resort.

Rev. H. A. M. Henderson, D. D., has gained considerable reputation as a lecturer in the Northern cities. His lecture entitled "The sword of Grant and Lee, or the South in Arms and Peace," has been delivered before immense audiences.

Our friend, Mr. John A. Bell, of Hatton, has placed us under obligations for a box of nice vegetables and apples, for which he will accept thanks. It contained among other things, a large specimen of a new variety of squash, which he called the Forsaker, and it was delightful.

A young gent of this city started to go fourteen miles out in the country a few nights since to see his girl, and when in two miles of her home his buggy broke down. Rather than leave his buggy and ride the horse bareback the balance of the distance, he pulled the vehicle up in a fence corner and walked the twelve miles back home, leading his horse. He don't think as much of country girls now as he did.

The Democratic County Committee met on Monday, passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Col. S. N. Hodges, deceased, the member of the Committee from Peak's Mill, elected Mr. Larry Hannon, of that precinct, to fill the vacancy, adopted a resolution that it was inexpedient, at this time, to call a primary election to nominate candidates for the office to be filled at the next August election, and adjourned until the first Monday in December.

There will be a blue ribbon temperance meeting at the Court House to-night. All are invited to attend.

Messrs. John Cochran & Co. purchased on Monday from the assignee of the Geo. C. Buchanan Co. the old Pepper Distillery property above the city, on the river, for $510.

Mr. Levi H. Scott, a thoroughly reliable gentleman of the Bald Knob precinct, is to-day announced as a candidate for Jailor. If elected he will make a first-class officer.

Capital Lodge, No. 269, I. O. G. T., will meet in Masonic Hall on Thursday evening next, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is desired, as business of importance will be transacted.

The Harrodsburg Tobacco Fair comes off on the 28th of this month and the exhibition of the Scott County Tobacco Association on the 5th of December. The premium lists of both are liberal.

Rev. Dr. C. Caperton delivered an interesting lecture upon Mexico at the Baptist Church, Friday evening of last week, to a full audience, though the attendance was not near so large as the lecture deserved.

The leaky gutter at the south end of the wooden bridge has not only been a nuisance every rainy day for months, but will again open the sidewalk for another job, if not abated. Can't the city lavish a dollar or two for repairs?

Esoteric Lodge, No. 582, A. Y. M., meets in regular monthly communication on Wednesday evening next at 7 o'clock. There will be work in the E. A. and F. C. degrees. Visiting brothers are cordially invited to attend, and members are earnestly requested to be present.

The young colored men of the city have rented the rooms over Henry Samuel's barbershop on St. Clair street, neatly fitted them up, and opened a reading room there, where they can go and while away a leisure hour or two reading, instead of going to a bar-room. This is a first-rate move and should be encouraged.

Messrs. John Milam and Logan McKee have procured all the machinery for their grist and honing mill they are busily engaged in fitting it up. They will use a large water motor to drive the mill. Mr. Logan McKee has given up his position in the U. S. Engineer's office, under Col. Sublett, and will give his whole time and attention to it.

Persons having children large enough to run about the streets, should instruct them not to interfere with the new fire hydrants. One or two of them have had to be taken up on account of boys taking off the caps and filling them with rocks, and on Thursday, when a test was being made of the hose used by the Fire Department, in South Frankfort, a spool which had been placed in the hydrant, was forced into the nozzle of the hose and caused considerable trouble.

There was an unusually large crowd in town Monday attending County Court. The sales on the street were quite lively, but prices were low. Mr. Henry Showalter, auctioneer, reports the following sales: 16 head of cattle at $21 per head; 8 head of yearling cattle at $18 per head; one four-year-old gelding $44.50; 1 three-year-old filly $67; 2 cows at $23 each; 2 head of mules at $80 per head; cow and calf, $12; 1 three-year-old stallion, $100.10; 4 head of long yearling cattle, $14.60 per head; 12 head of two-year-old cattle at $18.75 per head.

George McLaughlin, one of the Circus train robbers, was found guilty in the Circuit Court Saturday morning, and sentenced to five years in the Penitentiary. Mr. Wm. McCloy, one of the jurors, was taken violently ill in the Court House Friday night, during the argument of the case, and had to be carried to the room where the jury were looked up for the night, and back again in the morning. The cases of the other four Circus men engaged in the robbery were continued until the February term, the Court not having time to try them at this term. McLaughlin was taken on appeal.

A section of the pipe which runs from the pumping station to the reservoir burst Thursday morning, but there was four or five feet of water in the reservoir at the time, which was made use of to supply the city, and there has been no lack of water on account of the break until yesterday.

Personal.

Mr. J. W. Briggman, of Louisville, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Wickliffe Chapman has returned from a visit of several weeks to friends in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Maggie G. Clark, who has been visiting relatives in this city, left Monday morning for her home in Bourbon county.

Mrs. Chas. Bromley, of Mayfield, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bohannon at No. 510, Shelby street, South side.

Mrs. Walter Kelly, who has been visiting relatives here for several weeks, left yesterday morning for her home in Hopkinsville.

Rev. W. L. McEwan, of Wilmington, Delaware, who has been visiting his parents here for several weeks, left Tuesday night for home.

Misses Helen and Maria Lindsey left Tuesday evening for Warm Springs, North Carolina, where they will spend the winter for the benefit of the health of the former.

Dr. Beauchamp, of Owen county, a brother of J. O. Beauchamp, who was executed in this city in 1824, for the murder of Solomon P. Sharp, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. M. E. D. Smith, of Alabama, Mrs. Alexander, of Paducah, Ky., A. D. Aldridge, and Mrs. Howard, of Dallas, Texas, are visiting relatives at Mr. R. M. Aldridge's.

Mrs. Ruth Wilson, of Versailles, and her sister, Mrs. I. N. Prather, of Harrodsburg, daughters of Dr. Bell, of Lexington, have been visiting at the residence of John L. Scott this week.

Isaac Murphy, the champion colored jockey of the world, and wife are in the city for a few days. He has engaged to ride the horses of "Lucky" Baldwin, of California, for the seasons of 1886 and 1887 at a salary of $5,000 a season. The stock is said to be sent east to him, none of the mounts to be on the Pacific slope.

In Memory of Little Hallie Pence.

Little Hallie was suddenly called to her Heavenly home Sunday evening, Oct. 25th, 1885; her spirit took flight, passed through the gate ajar, and borne on angels' wings to her Saviour's breast. Her death has cast a gloom over the home circle. She was a sweet, sensitive child—the daily delight of her mother's life, just as she was budding into that period of life most interesting to parents; that period when the prattle of childhood contains much sweeter than earth can yield. By seeing and hearing the dear little one, we too had learned to love her. The little chair now no more to be placed at the table for Hallie. Her little toys away. She will need them no more. Dear parents, grieve not about the dark and gloomy grave; for she is not there. It is only her body that fills the grave. Her pure spirit that gave life and beauty to this earthly tenement has gone to a far better home. Console yourselves, dear weeping ones, with the precious thought that you can meet her over there where she now basks in the smiles of God. No more grief, no more sorrow, no more pain and separation. Why the angel of death has chosen to withdraw the loved one from the fond embrace of her affectionate parents, sisters and brother's early in life, we do not understand; but God moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform. Yet, in forbids to murmur, but not forbids to regret this dark dispensation. What you have loved so tenderly while living here on earth you may still cherish with affectionate remembrance, cheered by the hope of meeting her again in the spirit land where she now is.

Safe at home with Jesus.
Safe from trouble and care,
Safe from the world's vexatious,
Sin can not enter there.
